AFFIDAVIT OF JOHN HERKLOTZ

STATE OF CALIFORNIA

COUNTY OF ORANGE

Before me, the undersigned authority, a Notary Public in the State of California, County of Orange, personally appeared John Herklotz, who being duly sworn according to law deposes and says that he makes the following Affidavit upon personal knowledge:

I. Introduction—Biographical and Professional Information

1. I, John Herklotz, am one of the Defendants in the above-captioned case; and, I am over the age of 18 years old and competent to make this Affidavit.

2. I reside in Laguna Woods Village, California.

3. I am semi-retired, devoting most of my time and resources to charities (Exhibit 1).

4. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein and am qualified to respond to the claims and allegations regarding records kept, or not kept, by Plaintiff, WRS d/b/a WRS Motion Picture and Video, and I have been a CPA for 55 years and continue to maintain my membership in the Illinois Society of CPA's and American Institute of CPA's. During my employment by the Chicago Tribune in the 1960's, I was responsible for 7 accounting departments, including credits and collections, which comprised approximately 25 employees.

II. WRS Should Not Have Extended Credit to Plaza in April of 1998

5. At the time credit was extended, Plaza was already behind over one year per WRS's own schedules of invoices dated March 31, 1998, August 31, 1998, and November 30, 1999 invoices to Plaza (Exhibits 2, 3, and 4). Instead of collecting on a timely basis from Plaza, WRS established a $1,500,000 credit limit (Exhibit 5) at which time the amount due from Plaza at August 31, 1998 was $720,679, of which 79% or $570,865, was "over 90 days past due." Also, Plaza's check for $40,000 had bounced (Exhibit 6).

III. WRS Should Not Have Continued to Extend Credit to Plaza

6. WRS should not have continued credit based on past experiences and the knowledge that Central deVideo was not being paid and was threatening suit. Central filed suit for approximately $190,000 on January 5, 1999.

IV. Issues Pertaining to Lock Box Arrangements

7. Although the Services Agreement of October 12, 1998 provided for a lock box in which the first check deposited on July 16, 1999 (some nine months later) for only $956.96, apparently there were other lock boxes, including:

a. WRS's own lock box, PI 360043, National Bank of Canada, which could have been used for Plaza's collections in April of 1998 prior to my guaranty, and;

b. Lockbox 1417700892 which apparently was established with the Bank of America on or around August 10, 1998 (Exhibit 7).

8. WRS was extremely remiss in not getting monies sent to Plaza deposited in a lock box by merely printing a statement such as the following on Plaza's invoices:

"Please make your check payable to Plaza Entertainment, Inc. and mail to Box No. _____, at _____ Bank."

V. Issues Pertaining to the Services Agreement

9. Exhibit 8 is a copy of a Services Agreement between WRS, Plaza and its principals, Eric Parkinson, Charles von Bernuth and Thomas Gehring dated October 12, 1998. On Page 5 of the Services Agreement, Thomas Gehring was listed to be a signer.

10. Exhibit 9 is a fax that Tom Gehring sent to Eric Parkinson apparently on October 15, 1998 suggesting "that the individuals do not sign it" and apparently WRS agreed to the Services Agreement even though Gehring, as a 25% stockholder and director of Plaza, refused to sign it. During 1997 and 1998, Gehring represented me as a plaintiff in a suit against Santa Monica Pictures.

11. For just the period of January 1 through July 31, 1998, Jenkins & Gilchrist had billed $28,994.97 to American Happenings and were sending the monthly invoices to Charles von Bernuth. Charles von Bernuth did not send me copies of Jenkins & Gilchrist's invoices from August, 1998 through November, 1998; and I was surprised to learn that the outstanding balance was in excess of $100,000, of which two invoices (Nos. 566880 and 590576) totaled $90,255 and Jenkins & Gilchrist's balance as of 12/07/98 was $117,908 (Exhibit 10). This was at the same time Jenkins and Gilchrist was representing Plaza and its directors and shareholders, in negotiations with WRS regarding the Services Agreement.

12. In December, 1998, Jenkins and Gilchrist advised me to settle with Santa Monica Pictures for $125,000 and that settlement checks be sent to them until the account was paid off.

VI. The Schneider Downs Report

13. During our initial meeting on May 15, 2006 with Tom Claassen and John Briggs of Schneider Downs and Thomas Reilly and Jack Napor of WRS, Tom Claassen indicated that the scope of their examination would entail an examination of Plaza's financial records and tax returns and tracing WRS's billings to Plaza to Plaza's billings to customers.

14. In their examination of Plaza's records, the only procedure that they followed through on was tracing open items on WRS's accounts receivables listing to accounts payable per Plaza's records. This tracing showed an inability by Schneider Downs to trace 44% of WRS's invoices to Plaza's accounts payables. (Schneider Downs Exhibit "C").

15. As far as Schneider Downs' examination of WRS records, it is my opinion, with a reasonable degree of certainty upon application of commonly accepted accounting principles and practices, that such examination flawed in that:

a. Schneider Downs provided principally a mechanical function tracing documents provided by WRS (which were purported to be open accounts receivable items as on 12/31/00) to a computer listing totaling $1,270,683.34; not the $1,324,841.11.

b. Schneider Downs sampled 40 transactions to “recalculate” the invoices based on quantity and cost per item for mathematical accuracy”. Schneider Downs claims their sample includes “the 10 largest sales transactions, 20 random sales transactions and 10 random finance transactions”. Whereas their Exhibit A shows 20 largest sales, 19 random and 11 finance transactions.

c. Schneider Downs reviewed records pertaining to the National Bank of Canada Lock Box and traced 65 deposits totaling $60,476 (less than 5% of the purported $1,270,683.27 A/R balance at 12/31/00).

i). Schneider Downs’ initial draft dated 8/29/06, indicated that they were unable to trace 18 deposits of the 65 total deposits traced to NBC from April, 1998, through December.

ii). In their final report (5 weeks later) Schneider Downs traced 11 of the 18 reducing the untraceable units to 7, of the 7, one is the $25,000 deposit on 7/20/00.

d. Exhibit C is a list of WRS invoices that Schneider Downs attempted to trace to Plaza’s accounts payable. Of the 73 invoices, Schneider Downs was able to trace only 41 (56%) to Plaza’s payables.

16. There are a number of significant “red flags” in the material that Schneider Downs apparently ignored or failed to comment on:

- a. WRS’s credit policies;
- b. Allowing Plaza to run up over $1 million in unpaid bills;
- c. Plaza’s $100,000 undeposited check dated 6/29/99 to WRS

(Exhibit 11).

d. Apparently, per WRS’s records and checks furnished by WRS, only 5 checks were sent from Plaza to WRS during 1998—one of them ($10,000) to pay on account for Bread & Water and a $40,000 check that bounced.

VII. WRS Billings

17. Exhibit 12 of this Affidavit is a worksheet that I prepared to analyze the “open” items regarding the WRS balance due from Plaza through November 29, 1999. Note that WRS shows no open items from January 13, 1998 through March 18, 1999 although WRS did purport to produce videos during that period of time. In addition, columns 1 and 2 on the worksheet show total of $140,250 for open items as of 3/31/98 for which WRS has furnished invoices on November 27, 2006 for which no copies of checks have been provided with the exception of only 5 checks for 1998 and a $100,000 uncashed check that I discovered in WRS’s files.

VIII. WRS's Inability to Reconcile Their Own Records

18. I made an attempt to break down WRS's open charges by title, but was unable to balance my figures with Jack Napor's Affidavit in Support of WRS's Motion for Summary Judgment as to Damages which showed a total of $1,324,841.61 (Paragraph 16 of Napor Affidavit). The problems included:

- a. Failure to include Page 1 of the Receivables Management Report in the Complaint;
- b. No chronological sequence of open items, for example, Page 4 of their 9/13/05 report
 - i. Starts with an item dated 3/1/01;
 - ii. Then 3 items for 1998;
 - iii. 15 items for 1999; and
 - iv. 1 item for 2001; and 7 items again for 1999, and;
- c. A number of items were not identified. A request was made of Jack Napor for WRS to provide a reconciliation, but WRS was unable to do so even after 3 attempts (Exhibit 13).

IX. Background Information on Plaza Entertainment, Inc.

19. I am familiar with some of the relationship between WRS and Plaza Entertainment during 1998 and have gained knowledge of previously unknown information through certain documents recently provided to me by WRS.

20. I met Eric Parkinson when Mr. Parkinson worked for Hemdale Entertainment.

21. Hemdale, headed up by John Daly, went bankrupt, and Eric Parkinson formed Plaza with Gordon Granger, a resident of Austin, Texas, providing the funds. Daly later was a founder of Entertech Entertainment.

22. Granger wanted to terminate his relationship with Plaza in the latter part of 1997.

23. I was looking for video distribution for "The Giant of Thunder Mountain" a motion picture that I financed.

24. Based on Parkinson's representations that Plaza could sell in excess of $10,000,000 in videos (Exhibit 14), I:

- a. Agreed to buy Granger's 50% interest (100 shares) for $100,000;
- b. Advanced $125,000 as of December 31, 1997 (Exhibit 15).
- c. Gave 20 shares to Thomas Gehring and Charles von Bernuth (10 shares, or 5% of Plaza's stock, to each) on December 31, 1997.
- d. Sold/gifted my remaining shares (80) to Gehring and von Bernuth (40 shares each) on March 1, 1998 at a price of $10,000 each and gifted them back the $10,000.
- e. Plaza's stock ownership on March 1, 1998 was

Parkinson	50%
Gehring	25%
Von Bernuth	25%
	100%

Although Gehring claims that he sold his 25% to von Bernuth for only $1.00. On January 1, 1999 (4 days before Central deVideo filed a lawsuit against Plaza), Gehring's letter of January 20, 1999, indicates that he was "silent shareholder" at that time. Charles von Bernuth presumably later sold his 50% to Parkinson on December 31, 1999.

f. Tom Gehring and Charles von Bernuth became directors of Plaza on March 28, 1998 (Exhibit 16).

25. I loaned Plaza an additional $322,000 during the month of January 1998.

26. In addition, I advanced $950,000 from my CRAT, for a total of $1,397,000.

27. Plaza (Parkinson, Gehring and von Bernuth) engaged the services of WRS and Central deVideo for Giant of Thunder Mountain's anticipated pre-order date of April 21, 1998 and street date of May 12, 1998. However, such orders were after the pre-order date and some other shipments were made after the start date.

28. After starting duplicating (WRS for 200,000 units and Central deVideo for 170,000 units), I received a call from Parkinson that WRS required my personal guaranty or the videos would not be delivered.

29. Although Gehring was a major shareholder and director of Plaza and represented me in other matters, along with representing me with other attorneys employed by Jenkins & Gilchrist, he did not advise me of the pitfalls should I sign any of the guaranties. In fact, instead of protecting me from the Services Agreement (which was apparently negotiated by Gehring for Plaza), Gehring advised Parkinson not to sign it (Exhibit 9), stating "otherwise, you might be inadvertently personally guaranteeing the contract". At this period of time, Gehring (a major shareholder and director of Plaza) along with others at Jenkins & Gilchrist billed me over $91,000 for the period of August, 1998 through October, 1998 (Exhibit 10).

30. At the same time as I signed the May 6, 1998 Guaranty, von Bernuth (who was CFO of Plaza, a major shareholder and director of Plaza), unbeknownst to me, signed a guaranty to Central DeVideo as President of American Happenings.

X. Miscellaneous

31. Despite having signed the guaranty at issue in this case, I was never provided notice concerning Plaza's debt until I was served with a copy of this lawsuit. As such, I was never provided with an opportunity to minimize the amounts due while the events at issue in this case were ongoing.

32. Although Jack Napor indicated that WRS had not received any monies from miscellaneous sales of Plaza titles after the last receipt per WRS's Receivables Management Report dated 9/13/05, I was unable to tie-in Library Video's Purchase Orders 54199, 53032 and 53461 (Composite Exhibit 17) with the Receivables Management Report. This brings up the question as to whether there are others, when and for how much, and when WRS actually stopped fulfilling orders for which WRS was paid.

XI. Conclusion

33. The only credit and collections policies that WRS appears to have are no policies other than trying to extract “financing” charges at an annual rate of 18% on billings that WRS failed to collect. WRS’s last billing to Plaza for finance charges was $18,707 or approximately $224,000 on an annual basis; and, per Napor’s Affidavit, claiming a grand total due of $2,492,000 as of October 13, 2006—over a million dollars, or 40%, is claimed as “Accrued Finance Charges” and “Interest on Storage Charges.”. WRS’s failure to employ prudent credit policies such as:

34. No extension of credit to customers having such a bad history as Parkinson, Plaza, Bread & Water, EnterTech and any other unknown entities or affiliates of those entities.

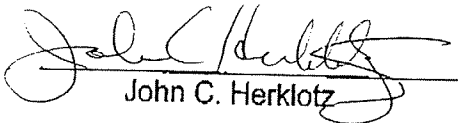

35. As shown on Exhibit 2, Plaza owed WRS the amount of $140,246 at March 31, 1998, of which $67,492 was a carryover from the March 31, 1997 statement (Exhibit 18). In spite of this, WRS granted $660,432 credit to Plaza for just the 5-month period of April, 1998 through August, 1998. In that 5-month period, WRS shows (and can only produce 5 checks) credits or collections of only $80,000 leaving a balance of $720,679. As a reward for this, WRS apparently granted a $1.5 million credit limit (Exhibit 5).

36. If WRS had prudent credit policies, they would have:
- a. Had credit checks made of Plaza, Bread & Water, Plaza’s directors and even John Herklotz.
 - b. Considered their past history with those parties.
 - c. Not started production unless on a cash upfront basis or all credit checks were evaluated and all guaranties obtained and a "roadmap" provided as to how and when Plaza was going to pay off their past due balance for over a year ago's billings.

37. As a failure on WRS's part to use prudent credit and collection policies, many persons have suffered (just a few being, Phil Nebbelink, produce of "Puss In Boots", who received "not a penny" from Plaza, whereas WRS apparently duplicated over 60,000 videos of "Puss In Boots" during August, 1999, Parkinson projected that the video's sales goals were 1 million units generating $8 million on gross revenues; Bobby Sargent, TXStar of Austin, Texas, who, along with friends provided Plaza $500,000 which was "gone in just a few weeks" and John Herklotz who has lost almost $1.5 million in loans, immeasurable losses in the value of The Giant of Thunder Mountain, and hundreds, if not thousands, of hours and many thousands of dollars in legal expenses and other costs.

38. Although my limited examination, due to time frames, discovered a great number of weaknesses in WRS's policies, record keeping and collection failures, it is believed that a "fraud audit" would be necessary to get to the bottom of the WRS/Plaza relationship. However, this again, would take hundreds (if not thousands) of hours of time and many thousands of dollars. Therefore, it is respectfully requested that, although WRS has been granted a judgment, the damages award be $0.

John C. Herklotz

John C. Herklotz was born and raised in Chicago, Illinois. After graduation from high school, prior to entering the U.S. Army in 1943, he was employed by Chicago Title & Trust and the Chicago Tribune. During this period he attended college to accomplish his early goal to become a Certified Public Accountant.

While serving with the U.S. Army, he was a member of the 44th Infantry Division, the Army Specialized Training Program at the University of South Dakota and completed his service with the 191st Signal Repair Company in the China-Burma-India area. Following his military service, John entered DePaul University to further his education goals while working part-time at the Tribune. After graduation from DePaul with a Bachelor of Science in Accounting, Price Waterhouse employed him for two years during which time he obtained his C.P.A. license.

In 1951, John returned to the Chicago Tribune where his professional experience included employment as Internal Auditor, Manager of the Tax Department and Chief Financial Officer for the Tribune's subsidiary companies. In addition, he was Auditor and Controller for WGN Continental Broadcasting during seven years of their expansion. In 1968, John left corporate life to pursue a career as a media financial consultant and broadcast station broker. During the next twenty years, he rendered consulting and brokerage services to numerous radio, television, and cable companies.

In 1988, John formed the Cellular Financial Corporation and actively pursued opportunities in the new and expanding cellular telephone industry. The federal government awarded John's company a rural telephone license in New Mexico covering 22,000 square miles of service area including the cities of Santa Fe and Los Alamos. In 1990 he sold his company to Centel Corporation to pursue his lifelong dream of devoting time and resources to charitable and worthwhile causes.

During the last sixteen years, John has established a legacy of helping numerous worthy causes. He is currently Chairman of Tesuque Radio Company that operates a communications site on Tesuque Peak, New Mexico.

As Chief Executive Officer of Herklotz Enterprises, Inc., John produced a feature film, "The Giant of Thunder Mountain", a heart-warming story for the entire family.

John's charitable endeavors include his role as financial contributor and Chairman of the Board of Directors of American Happenings. John has generously contributed to The John Douglas French Foundation for Alzheimer's Research, The Phoenix House, The Santuario de Guadalupe, Santa Fe, and has provided scholarship funds and grants to Children's Museum of the Desert, USC Schools of Medicine & Music, California Institute of the Arts, Herklotz Research Facility at University of California Irvine, House Ear Institute, John Brown University, National Domestic Violence Hotline, DePaul University, Ray Meyer Scholarship Fund, Orthopedic Research & Education Foundation, Children's Hospital Los Angeles Foundation, Children's Miracle Network, Make-A-Wish Foundation, National Dance Institute of New Mexico, Children's Hospital Orange County, Orange County Bar Foundation, Heart of a Champion Foundation, Concordia University, Occidental College, Lupus Research Institute, Vital Ground Foundation and National Student/Parent Mock Election for which John serves as Vice-Chairman.

In 1998, The Vatican conferred the Papal Knight of St. Gregory on John for his significant service and assistance to the Archdiocese of Santa Fe.

NO. 5 P. 2/6

SERVICES AGREEMENT

THIS SERVICES AGREEMENT between WRS, Inc. ("WRS") and Plaza Entertainment, Inc. ("Plaza") and its principals—Eric Parkinson, Charles vonBarnuth and Thomas Gehring, is made as of this 2nd day of October, 1998.

A. Plaza and WRS have an existing manufacturing and business relationship, and Plaza has an immediate need for (i) working capital financing ("Financing") and (ii) certain administrative services, including, generation of sales invoices, collection of accounts receivables, performance of general accounting and related record keeping functions, monitoring and maintenance of inventories of packaging, finished goods, returns processing and repackaging (collectively, the "Administrative Services").

B. Plaza also needs to purchase post production services and video cubs (copies) in the normal course of its business (collectively, "Production Services"), has been obtaining Production Services from WRS on an open account basis pursuant to that certain Credit Application given by Plaza to WRS and WRS' standard terms and conditions ("Standard Terms") of sale which are a part of the Credit Application. Plaza owes WRS approximately $585,379.88 as of August 31, 1998 (subject to review and verification thereof), plus applicable interest thereon, for Production Services previously performed by WRS (the "WRS Receivable").

C. WRS, to enhance and increase its business relationship with Plaza, Eric Parkinson, Charles vonBarnuth and Tom Gehring, and protect its interest in the WRS Receivable, is willing to perform the Administrative Services and continue to perform Production Services for Plaza on the terms and conditions described in this Agreement (all invoices for Production Services performed by WRS after the date of this Agreement are referred to as "New Invoices").

In consideration of the mutual promises set forth in this Agreement, the parties agree as follows.

Section I. Administrative Services. Plaza hereby appoints and employs WRS as Plaza's exclusive agent to perform the Administrative Services for Plaza. WRS accepts said appointment and agrees to perform the Administrative Services for Plaza in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. The performance of all activities by WRS, including the maintenance of all bank accounts relative to the Administrative Services, shall be as the agent of and for account of the Plaza. Plaza and WRS agree to arrange for a "lock box" or other similar arrangement with National Bank of Canada, its successor or other financial institution (the "Bank") for receipt of payment of Plaza's accounts receivable and distribution of such receipts in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. As compensation for the Administrative Services, Plaza shall pay to WRS a monthly fee (the "Monthly Fee") equal to the greater of (i) $1,000 or (ii) one percent of the aggregate amount invoiced by WRS for Production Services during such month (but not to exceed $20,000 per month). In addition, Plaza shall reimburse WRS for all out of pocket expenses incurred by it in the performance of the Administrative Services (but excluding any personnel costs). WRS shall provide Plaza with a monthly statement setting forth the fees and expenses incurred on behalf of Plaza during such month, each of which shall be paid directly by Plaza to WRS within 30 days of the statement date. In the event any invoice remains unpaid after 30 days, WRS shall have the right to instruct the Bank to make payment of such invoice to WRS from the funds in the lock box account.

Section 1.1 Distribution of Lockbox Funds. The parties agree that until such time as all amounts owed to WRS by Plaza are less than 60 days, WRS shall instruct the Bank to distribute the funds in the lockbox account on a weekly in accordance with the following procedures:

1. With respect to each payment made by a customer of Plaza which is received during each week, WRS shall match such payment to the WRS invoice to Plaza for the products which are the subject of such customer's payment. If the payment (i) relates to the WRS Receivable then WRS and Plaza shall instruct the Bank to distribute an amount equal to 50% of each such payment to WRS and (ii) (ii) relates to a New Invoice then WRS and Plaza shall instruct the Bank to distribute an amount equal to 30% of each such payment to WRS;

2. WRS shall instruct the Bank to distribute the remaining funds to Plaza or in accordance with Plaza's instructions.

It is the intention of the parties that the arrangement contemplated above will result in each New Invoice being paid in full within 60 days of the date of such invoice. To the extent that New Invoices are not kept current under the distribution arrangement set forth above the parties agree to negotiate in good faith an appropriate distribution arrangement which will keep Plaza current on New Invoices; provided however in no event shall any New Invoice remain unpaid for more than 89 days after the date of such New Invoice.

Section 1.2 Incentive. As an incentive to foster the business relationships contemplated by this Agreement and to provide financial assistance to Plaza, WRS agree to provide Plaza a credit against the WRS Receivable equal to fifty cents on the first 300,000 units that WRS produced for Plaza, such credit to be applied on the first anniversary of this Agreement or such earlier date as Plaza shall become current on all outstanding invoices from WRS; provided, however, such credit shall only be made if Plaza has fully complied with the terms of this Agreement.

Section 2 WRS' Internet Web Site. WRS agrees to place all of Plaza's titles, including the Bendale titles, on WRS' Internet Web Site at full retail prices to obtain additional marketing exposure for Plaza.

OCT. 12. 1998 4:14PM

N 12 P.4/5

Section 3 Assistance. WRS agrees to assist Plaza in its efforts to obtain adequate and appropriate financing with National Bank of Canada and/or other entities WRS deems appropriate, by effecting introductions to such entities, and if required, by partially subordinating its security interests in the WRS Receivable provided that the proceeds of such financing are used to satisfy a portion of such Receivable. Any resultant financing will be subject to Plaza's approval. It is mutually agreed that Plaza and its principals, Eric Parkinson, Charles von Benckhoff and Tom Gehring (collectively, the "Principals"), will execute such documents as are required to accomplish the foregoing and to confirm that WRS shall have a security interest in all proceeds from all business activities of Plaza from any and all sources (excluding video kiosks), and/or any future entity WRS may designate to perform this function by until further notice; provided, however, that at such time as Plaza shall be current on payment of all invoices, the security interest in proceeds granted to WRS under this Section shall be limited to the proceeds of Plaza's distribution activities in the United States.

Section 4 Production Services. Plaza agrees that WRS shall have the sole and exclusive rights to perform Production Services for Plaza for all videos to be distributed in the United States, and WRS agrees to perform such Production Charges for Plaza in accordance with the current prices between WRS and Plaza in effect (copy attached) and reviewed annually. All other WRS services not listed that Plaza requires will be discounted 25% from WRS' then published prices. Plaza further agrees that WRS shall be its exclusive supplier of dubs and all of those other services WRS routinely provides for Plaza's product delivery to its domestic and international clients.

Section 5 Term. This Agreement shall remain in effect until such time as the WRS Receivable and New Invoices shall have been paid in full. Thereafter, either party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by giving the other party ninety days' written notice of termination. In the event of price disagreements at any annual price renegotiation contemplated in Section 4, WRS shall have the right of first refusal, but not the obligation to match any bona fide written competitive offers made by other first class laboratory facilities. It is mutually agreed that any such price reductions shall be correspondingly matched with the caliber and quality of workmanship and materials as are being offered by the competitive laboratory.

Section 6 Security Interest; Financial Information; Guaranty. Plaza hereby acknowledges that Plaza has granted WRS a security interest in certain collateral (the "Collateral") described in the UCC-1 Financing Statements previously filed with the Secretaries of State of California and Pennsylvania, copies of which are attached to this Agreement, and agrees that it shall execute such documents as may be reasonably required by WRS to maintain the effectiveness of such filings and to protect WRS' interest in such Collateral to the extent reflected on such Financing Statements. In addition, Plaza shall provide WRS and/or National Bank of Canada with all such financial information concerning Plaza as WRS and/or National Bank of Canada shall reasonably request in order that WRS and/or National Bank of Canada can monitor Plaza's financial position and WRS can provide such administrative assistance as Plaza may from time to time require. In the event of a breach by Plaza of any of the terms of this Agreement or in the event Plaza shall become insolvent, WRS shall have the right to exercise any and all remedies as a secured creditor provided by provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code in effect where such Collateral is located. As a further inducement to WRS to enter into this Agreement, each of the Principals hereby guarantees the performance by Plaza of its obligations under the terms of this Agreement, including the payment of the WRS Receivable and New Invoices, and any other charges, expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) and costs reasonably incurred by WRS in any proceeding to enforce any of the terms of this Agreement (collectively, the "Collection Expenses").

OCT. 12. 1998 4:15P.

Section 7 Acknowledgments. The parties acknowledge and agree that this Agreement is intended to set forth the parameters of a working relationship which will promote their individual interests and to provide with WRS with incentives to continue to perform Production Services for Plaza. Accordingly, the parties agree to negotiate in good faith to establish the procedures necessary, and to execute any and all documents and further agreements that may be reasonably required, to more fully implement the terms of this Agreement.

Eric, let's discuss the WRS agreement. I certainly suggest that the individuals do not sign it. Only you should sign it as "President" of Plaza Entertainment, Inc. -- otherwise you might be inadvertently personally guaranteeing the contract. I have attached a draft of the agreement with some suggested revisions.

Dear Tom:

Upon review of the information provided by Jack Napor at the meeting on May 15, 2006, which purports to be the support for the claim of $1,324,841.61 per the Complaint, John Herklotz has noted that there are a number of errors in the scheduled. Below are examples of some of the errors noted by Mr. Herklotz:

Page	Line
1	27	(1) No amount – see attached pages.
1	29	(2) $2398 – apparently should be $239.80. Also, see Page 2 – Lines 51, 52, 44, 75 and other pages
2	47	(3) Total should be $32,128.56
	59	(4) Anderson – was this paid or still open? Why not on original statement?

It is hoped that prior to the June 5th meeting WRS can come up with schedules that tie in with the $1,324,841.61 figure in the Complaint, and it is suggested that they also break down those figures as done by Mr. Herklotz on the attached pages.

I look forward to discussing this with you.

Very truly yours,

MINUTES OF MEETING

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
PLAZA ENTERTAINMENT, INC.
SATURDAY, MARCH 28, 1998

16

The meeting was held at the Los Angeles offices of Jenkins & Gilchrist, a law firm located at 12600 West Wilshire Boulevard, 15th floor, in the City of Los Angeles, State of California, 90066. The meeting was held on the twenty-eighth day of March, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety Eight at 10:00 a.m., Pacific Standard Time.

The Following Directors were present.:

John C. Herklotz -- Chairman Of The Board
Eric Parkinson -- President and Secretary;

Thomas Gehring, Esq., was in attendance as an invited guest of the board, and in the capacity of providing legal commentary and corporate counsel. Charles von Bernuth, an officer in American Happenings, Inc., was also in attendance as an invited guest of John C. Herklotz.

The following are points of discussion which were on the Agenda and the respective discussions, where necessary, of each point, and which, as of this date, require no further board actions other than those specified below:

1) RATIFICATION OF MINUTES OF PREVIOUS MEETING -- Parkinson described a Board meeting that was held in the Plaza, Los Angeles offices in October, 1997 at which time board members Herklotz and Parkinson approved the opening of a corporate bank account at Imperial Bank, Los Angeles, along with the acceptance of approximately USD $140,000 in loans to the company from John C. Herklotz. However, the minutes of this meeting were not completed for the board's review or ratification. Parkinson also described a prior board meeting that was held at the Austin, TX offices of Jenkins & Gilchrist in September of 1997, at which time the company accepted the resignation of Gordon R. Granger as Chairman, following the unanimous election of John C. Herklotz to the board in that same position. It was suggested that the details of this transaction, along with the Board's acknowledgment that Herklotz had purchased Granger's 50% stake in the company's stock also be drafted into formal Board minutes. However, as neither Parkinson nor Jenkins & Gilchrist had completed the drafting of formal minutes of these two meetings, Parkinson moved that the board waive the ratification of the minutes at this time. Herklotz seconded the motion, and the motion passed unanimously to defer ratification of the September and October 1997 Board meetings until such time that the minutes could be formally written and reviewed.

2) ELECTION OF ADDITIONAL BOARD MEMBERS -- Parkinson suggested that the number of Board members be increased (to a level closer to the corporate by-laws suggesting a five member board). Parkinson nominated Charles von Bernuth to the position of Board member and Treasurer. Herklotz seconded the motion, and it was unanimously approved. Parkinson then suggested that Thomas Gehring be elected to the Board as a voting member (without a specific corporate title). Herklotz seconded the motion, and it was unanimously approved.

3. PRESIDENT'S REPORT -- Parkinson presented the Board with details of the marketing plans currently underway for the May releases of "The Giant Of Thunder Mountain" and "Twisted." The printed reports included a sales forecast for both titles totaling approximately USD $10-million in gross billings, along with a cash requirement chart showing an imminent need for approximately USD $1.5-million in marketing and overhead funds in order to achieve the sales goals. The film "Twisted" was being marketed primarily on the star power of the case, especially Geoffrey Rush. However, over 90% of the sales were expected to be generated by "The Giant Of Thunder Mountain", due in large part, Parkinson said, to the multifaceted cross-promotional support arranged by Herklotz through his association with the Children's Miracle Network. Parkinson said that Plaza had recently hired several sales representatives from Hallmark Ent., and Cabin Fever Ent., and that these representatives and the company's retail and wholesale customers were expressing nearly unanimous enthusiasm and support for the release of "The Giant Of Thunder Mountain." However, consolidations, mergers and closings amongst independent home video distributors during the past few years had created a foundation of skepticism that Plaza would be successful in "delivering" the promotions and advertising that would be required to sell (approximately) one-million videos through the market. This attitude, Parkinson said, was the company's primary perception obstacle... defeatable simply by implementing the pre-sale trade advertising and marketing campaign as quickly as possible, then following through in mid-to-late May with the appropriate level of consumer advertising to drive the requisite re-orders.

4. DISCUSSION OF FINANCING SOURCES -- A discussion ensued among the Board members regarding some of the options available to the company to secure the required marketing and operational funds. Although several potential lenders were mentioned (i.e., Imperial Bank, Santa Monica Bank, The Lewis Horwitz Organization), it was agreed that the start-up nature of Plaza as a business, combined with the company's current financials (consisting of two marginal -- or loss years -- followed by only "pro-forma" sales and profits) would most likely be disregarded by most conventional lending institutions. Accordingly, it was suggested that a loan would likely need to be supported by a personal guarantee of John Herklotz, with the possibility of some of Herklotz's assets also pledged; additionally, it was suggested by Charles von Bernuth that the equity in his residence in Camarillo, California, may provide up to $500,000 in additional collateral if required. Charles von Bernuth suggested that the Board consider the acceptance of a loan from himself of approximately USD $20,000, and an additional sum of approximately USD $80,000 from his father to provide the company with interim working capital. Parkinson seconded the motion, and the Board voted unanimously to accept the loans from Charles von Bernuth and his father, under the terms that the loans would be paid back as quickly as reasonably possible, but not later than 120 days, with interest to be paid only at whatever rate charged to Charles or his father for the use of the funds during the life of the loan. John Herklotz then suggested that his majority stock position in the Tesuque Radio Corp. (New Mexico) may be desirable collateral for a loan to Plaza. He also suggested that he may be in a position to facilitate the purchase (or surrendering) of the majority shareholder position in Tesuque Radio Corp., which may further strengthen this asset as pledgable collateral. Thomas Gehring mentioned several contact names at the Santa Monica Bank who may be receptive to reviewing Plaza's business plans and loan requirements. After more than 30 minutes of general discussion, it was determined that each Board member would pursue whatever means reasonably available, but to do so under the direction of John C. Herklotz, who would be spearheading the company's search for capital. Charles von Bernuth agreed to provide Gehring with documentation relative to his residential real estate collateral pledge, as stand-by assets in the event additional collateral would be requested from Santa Monica Bank, or other lending institutions.

5. ACCEPTANCE OF NEW TITLE ACQUISITIONS -- Parkinson described to the Board the terms of three new programs offered to Plaza for home video release. "Pistol: Birth Of A Legend" and "Quest Of The Delta Knights" both entailed back-end guarantees, payable over time, but no advance. "Destiny of Marty Fine" had no guarantee or advance, royalties only at a reduced rate of 15%, and also included an option on the film director's next feature, a multi-million dollars thriller with several stars. The Board unanimously approved the deal structure for all three titles.

PLAZA - BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING - Minutes Of March 28, 1998 - Page Three

6). CALIFORNIA YOUTH THEATRE -- Parkinson described to the Board the support that John C. Herklotz had pledged to C.Y.T. from his charitable trust, along with a generous cash donation, cumulatively totaling USD $300,000. Parkinson also described some of the benefits that may be available to Plaza if the company were to become a sponsor of the group by means of purchasing an "option" to film and distribute programming created by the group (for example, one of the programs anticipated would be a staged presentation of Shakespeare's "Macbeth" starring His Royal Highness Prince Edward, with a special appearance by Sean Connery; other programs include fairy-tale theater, youth symphony, popular musicals and dance). Under the plan proposed to Plaza by The California Youth Theatre (presented, actually by C.Y.T.'s primary sponsor, Paramount Studios), Plaza would pay to C.Y.T. on an annualized basis the sum of fifty-thousand dollars (USD $50,000). In consideration of this payment, Plaza would retain the exclusive option to film (or videotape) and market any of the productions or programs for which C.Y.T. would control these rights. There would be a royalty paid to C.Y.T. (to be negotiated in good faith on a title-by-title / program-by-program basis) from which the annual payment of $50,000 would first be recouped to Plaza. Due to the fundamental business sense of this arrangement, combined with the intangible -- but anticipated -- business benefits to be presented Plaza as a result of assuming such a close association with Paramount and its affiliated companies, Parkinson moved that the Board accept this proposal, and make a commitment to C.Y.T. for five years (cancelable at anytime at Plaza's sole discretion). Herklotz seconded the motion, and the matter was unanimously approved.

7). OTHER ACQUISITION OPPORTUNITIES -- Parkinson described to the Board several major releases that were available for Plaza to acquire. He discussed the importance of having a "major" title for the company to release each calendar quarter, due to the need for collections leverage, market presence, and locomotive support of the lesser titles already distributed by the company. He expressed concern after viewing the company's previously acquired, but just completed, animated film, "Puss In Boots" from Nibelink Productions. The quality of the animation, Parkinson said, was not comparable to Nibelink's previous works, including the Academy Award winner "Who Framed Roger Rabbit?". Therefore, Parkinson said that the film should probably be released a $14.95 suggested retail (instead of the previously anticipated $19.95 s.r.p.), and that the further step be taken to "package" along with the video a 32-page "storybook" to enhance Parkinson's marketing approach that the film is the world's first "living storybook." Parkinson's top prospect for the company to consider as an "A" title is the Showcase Entertainment project in post-production known as "The Adventures of Ragtime." This film stars SHELLY LONG ("Cheers"), JAY THOMAS ("Mr. Holland's Opus") and JUSTIN COOPER (Jim Carrey's son in "Liar, Liar", and the star of Warner's new "Dennis The Menace Strikes Again"). Parkinson stated his belief that the film could be successful as a THEATRICAL release, which would serve as a foundation for a very successful release from Plaza to the sell-thru video market. Although there were no specific deal terms, Showcase had been aggressively pursuing Parkinson, and he told the Board that he felt it was possible for the company to acquire the film under very favorable terms. Parkinson also mentioned a film that may be produced in the summer utilizing off-balance sheet financing (specifically, foreign rights pre-buys arranged by Morris Asgar, a former production colleague of Parkinson's). The project, "Daddy's Little Hero" would be produced for approximately $250,000, although shot on 35mm, and starring Dan Haggerty. The logic of the project, Parkinson expressed, was that the proposed deal offered Plaza a no-risk opportunity to own the movie in perpetuity (by utilizing foreign financing), and that the most recent Dan Haggerty family film released to video, "Grizzly Mountain" had already sold more than 400,000 video units for LIVE Ent. at $19.95 sugg. retail. No Board action was taken on any of the above projects.

8). HEMDALE LIBRARY -- Parkinson described the status of this potential acquisition. No other bidders were expected to try to beat the American Happenings, Inc. offer of USD $340,000 cash, plus a $100,000 one-year note... primarily, Parkinson said, due to the support that most of the program suppliers had already pledged to the concept of an American Happenings / via Plaza Ent., Inc. re-issue of their programs onto video. However, the timing was still protracted, due to legal requirements. American Happenings would still need to make a settlement agreement with Larry Abramson, to be effective if the purchase were approved, which deal would need to be part of the Trustee's filing with the court. Once the filing were made, approximately 60 days would transpire prior to the completion of American Happening's "due diligence." At any time during the due diligence period, and for any reason at the sole discretion of American Happenings, the deal can be canceled. The schedule provided to Parkinson by David Isenberg (counsel for the Herndale Trustee), indicated that a hearing may occur on or about May 19, 1998, at which time any "objections" to the sale would be ruled upon by the judge, and following which the "due diligence" period would commence.

9). NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF VIDEO DISTRIBUTORS - Parkinson discussed an important video industry convention that was to occur in mid-April, the N.A.V.D. show, at which most of Plaza's principal wholesaler customers would be receiving mandatory presentations on Plaza. At these presentations, it would be expected that Plaza would present a forecast of upcoming releases for the remainder of the year (which is the primary purpose of this trade show), as well as present the company with a solid forum to present additional marketing information and tips on "The Giant Of Thunder Mountain" and "Twisted." Parkinson suggested that the company prepare a business plan / outline feature acquired titles and pro-forma titles that could be presented at the N.A.V.D. in a "confidential" forum in order to support the perception that Plaza was a legitimate distributor of many films (not just "The Giant Of Thunder Mountain"), and was therefore worthy of the wholesaler's support. Charles von Bernuth suggested that the business plan / schedule was probably a good idea, to the extent that: the pro-forma titles and release schedule would not subject the company to any unreasonable liabilities, nor infringe upon the rights of the program licensors, or disclose too many confidential details of Plaza's financing or costs. Parkinson stated that "pro-forma" business plans were the norm at N.A.V.D., even for the major studios who would discuss properties such as "Lethal Weapon 5" before "Lethal Weapon 4" had even been shot.

THERE BEING NO FURTHER BUSINESS, THE MEETING WAS ADJOURNED AT 11:30 a.m.,

RESOLVED, that all actions and decisions to the date hereof of the officers of the Corporation, where such persons have been acting in the capacity of the offices which they hold are hereby ratified and confirmed.
